THIRD ANNOUNCEMENT

FULL PROGRAMME AVAILABLE ONLINE

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION EXTENDED UNTIL 21 JULY 2026

Dear Colleagues,

The Organising Committee is delighted to announce that the full scientific programme of the 25th EUMASS Congress is now available online.

We invite you to discover an exciting programme featuring renowned international keynote speakers, plenary sessions, parallel sessions, poster presentations and numerous opportunities for professional networking and exchange.

The programme reflects the diversity and richness of Social Insurance Medicine across Europe and addresses many of the challenges that will shape our profession in the years ahead:

- Artificial Intelligence and Digitalisation in Insurance Medicine
- Health at Work
- Sick Leave Management
- Rehabilitation and Return to Work
- Public Health, Healthcare and Economics

The complete programme can now be consulted on the congress website:

<https://www.eumass2026.eu/program.php>

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION EXTENDED

To allow more colleagues to benefit from the reduced registration fee, the Early Bird registration period has been exceptionally extended until 21 July 2026.

As many of you know, 21 July is Belgium's National Day – a perfect occasion to register and join us in Liège next September!

We therefore encourage you to secure your participation as soon as possible and benefit from the preferential registration rate.

WHY ATTEND?

- High-level scientific programme with leading European experts
- Unique networking opportunities with colleagues from across Europe
- Exchange of best practices in insurance medicine and social security
- Discover the latest developments in AI, work capacity assessment and return-to-work strategies
- Experience the hospitality and cultural richness of Liège, at the heart of Europe

Welcomereception

La Boverie is Liège's premier fine arts museum, beautifully located on the same island in the River Meuse. Housed in a landmark building created for the 1905 World Exhibition, it combines outstanding permanent collections with prestigious international exhibitions, making it one of Belgium's leading cultural venues.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to Liège!
